Sports Night

Once again another successful event...

Torrington Sports Night took place on 13th March at Langtree Village Hall. It was a fantastic opportunity for all of the clubs across North Devon to get together for a fun packed evening raising money for charity. Activities included; table skittles, darts, table football and shove ha'penny.

Good Communication

The importance of good communication in marriage .....

After being married for 40 years, I took a careful look at my wife one day and said .....”Forty years ago we had a cheap house, a rubbish car, slept on a sofa bed and watched a 10-inch black and white TV, but I got to sleep every night with a hot 23-year-old girl.

Now ... I have a £500,000 home, a £35,000 car, a nice big bed and a large screen TV, and ... I’m sleeping with a 62-year-old woman.....
It seems to me that you’re not holding up your side of things.”

My wife is a very reasonable woman. She told me to go out and find a hot 23-year-old girl and she would make sure that I would once again be living in a cheap house, driving a rubbish car, sleeping on a sofa bed and watching a 10-inch black and white TV.

Aren’t older women great? They really know how to solve an old guy’s problems.

A Golfer’s Confession

After many years away from the Church and with a heavy conscience an old golfer decides to make confession.

He goes to the confessional box pulls aside the curtain, enters and sits himself down.

There’s a fully equipped bar with crystal glasses, Guinness on tap, cigars and liqueur chocolates nearby, and on the wall a fine photographic display of buxom ladies who appear to have mislaid their garments.

He hears a priest come in:

“Father, forgive me for it’s been a very long time since I’ve been to confession and I must admit that the confessional box is much more inviting than it used to be”.

The priest replies ..... “Get out, you idiot. You’re on my side”
